Thinking of immigrating to Canada?

Canada is one of the most beautiful countries in the world and Vancouver, Calgary and Toronto have consistently been voted as three of the top cities in the world to live in.

Canada Countdown, How to Immigrate to Canada is the ONLY thorough and detailed expert guide to help you turn your dreams of immigrating to Canada into reality, from the initial application to your first steps on Canadian soil. It is co-written by an Expert Immigration Lawyer, who was named Leading Immigration Practitioner by L'Expert, earning the Who's Who Legal and Best Lawyers in Canada.

Most books available in stores and online about immigrating to Canada are outdated and don't cover all the 2013 policy changes! Don't waste your money!

Immigration regulations change rapidly in Canada and without up-to-date information, you will waste your time and hard-earned money by potentially applying for an immigration category that no longer exists or has changed drastically! Canada Countdown is a thorough and detailed guide to help would-be immigrants turn their dreams of coming to Canada into a reality, from the initial application to their first steps on Canadian soil.

Remember, the number of applicants far exceeds the number of people approved for immigration. And applying to immigrate can be riddled with an endless stream of complicated forms and confusing requirements. Save money!

Canada Countdown is filled with insider Tips, Notes and Cautions that Nick Noorani and Catherine Sas offer to help you get your visa approved! Additionally, the book is filled with hyperlinks that allow you to see the official documentation as you are reading the book! Being an eBook, this insider's guide is always current and also gives you one year of free updates on policy changes!
