Curses, parties, and true love. Scotty - or perhaps Scarlet - has one major day ahead of her.

With a long brooding crush on his best friend Jack, Scotty doesn't think he'll ever get the chance to reveal how he feels. Instead, he's content to be Jack's wingman, cornering women and giving them the offer of a threesome that is too hard to resist - right up until they take advantage of her trust and refuse to use condoms.

Opportunity comes, though, in the form of Hazel, a witch who is out to punish the two of them for their misdeeds - by zapping them both into a much less masculine form.

When Scotty's gay crush turns into a lesbian one, she thinks she finally has a chance with the former Jack. There's the matter of a big party, though. They invited a lot of girls, but something in Hazel's punch makes the guests start to feel a bit more manly than usual. Suddenly, Scarlet and Janie will get to know their new bodies extremely well as the entire party gets to know them carnally - and leave them both swelling with the most feminine thing of all - pregnancy.
