The Great Controversy: Past, Present, Future, How Will It End?

Unparalleled changes taking place around us forecast rapid and distressing events of the greatest magnitude. Already, in many hearts, there are sorrows and ills that no human balm seem able to heal. In many places, there are restless and unsettled state of affairs, causing political and religious forces to forge unprecedented alliances. And, wholly beyond the control of humanity, there are unregulated forces of nature which unleash calamities one after another in quick succession: earthquakes and tornadoes, destruction by fire and flood, often with great loss of life and property.
