You receive a Tweet of entrepreneur Barbie draped in couture, taking a selfie. Now that's funny. The shade of red worn by that Hollywood what's her name, in that recent biopic has caused a catastrophic style tsunami. Carrie Bradshaw, I mean Sarah J., has rocked our style world yet again.

Your street style is a myriad of what your spirit digests as meaningful to you, capturing all of the beautiful, inspirational things that come across your path in your lifetime.

Here's a book that will escort you to your styles destination. Forget about trying to reach some other woman's fashion altitude, true street style is about allowing yourself to be forever free, who you are called to be. No two street styles should be the same. I mean are two people? Well, style is no different.

In this book, The Street Style Handbook – Set Your Individual Style Free, W. Nicole, Street Style Yoda, fashion guru, and Founder of Upstyla.com, reveals how to unleash your true style on the everyday street runways and never let it go! This Street Style Handbook does not discriminate: this book is for the style curious and the style elite.

This book will help you discover your muse, reveal the true you inside, abandon pre-canned style ideas, get a little crazy, mix styles, and aspire to only compete with your past stylish self. Oh, and we can't forget the colorful style tips in between. The Street Style Handbook – Set Your Individual Style Free is your key to style emancipation, because your true hidden style is too beautiful for you to ever want to look like someone else. What are you waiting for, set your true style forever free.
