FIVE INSPIRATIONAL/SWEET HISTORICAL ROMANCE STORIES OF MAIL ORDER BRIDES SEEKING ADVENTURE OUT WEST!

Pearl of Promise (an inspirational historical romance novella by Raina King):

Avid reader Nora Finney has yearned for action and adventure. What could be more exotic than becoming the mail order bride of a rugged mountain man? Silver miner Arlen Hunt has already lost one wife to betrayal—then death—and it takes five lonely years to open his heart again. But when Nora’s dream of an amazing frontier life evaporates in the face of isolation and boredom, she fears she has made a mistake. Can she find purpose and joy in the path God has chosen, or will her ambitions endanger the life of someone she loves?

Wayward Love (an inspirational historical romance short novel by Raina King):

Five years after being jilted by Holden Parker, her childhood sweetheart, Estelle sees an advertisement for a mail order bride by a “Reverend Holden Parker”. Could it be her Holden? Writing under the name “Elizabeth” to find out, she is swept away as her old love for Holden resurfaces, and before she knows it, she has agreed to become his mail order bride. When his bride-to-be steps off the train, Holden Parker is none too pleased to discover that she’s really Estelle, who he heartlessly abandoned years before. She is a reminder of his past, and the dark secrets he has kept all these years. Will Holden unburden himself, and truly accept the forgiveness of the Lord? Or will fear and tragedy prevent him from ever telling Estelle the truth?

Kansas Bound (a sweet historical romance short novel by Claire Holiday):

Cicely Dunbar has reached the age when she must leave the orphanage she has called home. She never dreamed she would be fortunate enough to have not one, but two suitors to choose from—a successful local businessman, and a Kansas farmer with two motherless children. When her first choice ends in tragedy, Cicely must flee Philadelphia for her life. But will this orphan find the loving home and family she always dreamed of...or could her past bring another tragedy into their lives?

Montana Bound (a sweet historical romance novella by Claire Holiday):

Owen Miller is ecstatic when his widowed sister, Constance, finally attracts herself a suitor. If all goes well, he can return to Virginia and marry the sweetheart he was forced to leave behind. But when Constance invites Grace Russell to stay—a mail order bride who arrived by train, only to find her fiance had died—all his plans go awry. Not only is the beguiling girl's presence distracting to Owen, but she is captivating the attention of every single man in town—much to Owen's chagrin. On top of all that, his fiancée isn't returning his letters, his matchmaking sister has ideas of her own, and Constance's own relationship may be in jeopardy!

Open Hearts (an inspirational historical romance novella by Tula Darby):

Sylvie Tanner never had the example of true love in childhood. When she suddenly finds herself all alone, she is left with no choice but to do whatever it takes to survive, even becoming a mail order bride.

Unfortunately, she is not a Christian, and her only available choice is a Christian man. Nolan Kenner places an advertisement in the Marriage Gazette expecting to meet and marry a Christian woman. Sylvie Tanner most closely matches the qualities that he desires for a wife. He is thrilled when she accepts his proposal. Their marriage seems to be everything he ever wanted...until he discovers Sylvie's secret.
