Mommy Tell Me About Heaven Dana Morgan Murphy

Mommy, Tell Me About Heaven was inspired in 2003 by Dana's youngest of four sons, Marshall. While the two were riding in the car he asked her to tell him about heaven. Dana quickly pulled the car over and wrote a little poem God put in her heart. Marshall was not only satisfied with the rhyming response but it became his most cherished bedtime ritual for months. It wasn't until years later that longtime family friend Michelle Morse brought the words to life through vivid illustrations. By bringing this inspired book to print, the author prays heaven would become a very real place to children. Through receiving the free gift of God's grace they can look forward to living for eternity with Jesus Christ.
