All it takes is one goddess-affiliated demon to seal the deal. Sierra Fox, Book 4 Sierra Fox knows better than to believe the demon-obsessed freakshow has given up on her. She's settled into a nice routine of living with her sister, enjoying her relationship with a sexy werewolf, and staying on top of work-and always waiting for the other shoe to drop. Predictably, things start falling apart as she's suddenly swamped with surprise visits and unwanted advances, and someone she despises wants her help. When a spook-catching training session goes horribly wrong, she encounters a man who's not quite as dead as she'd hoped. Mace is now more than human and still determined to get his hands on her. But not if Sierra accepts the strengthening gifts her grandmother bestowed at her birth. Having the good guys put a price on her head is enough to ruin anyone's day, but Sierra refuses to give up or give in. Even if it means exercising the last option on earth she wants. But claiming the ultimate power may not be enough to save the man she loves before his werewolf past destroys him. Warning: Phantasms, pookas, werewolves, and demons, oh yes! And a spook-catching heroine who must choose to take what's rightfully hers-even if it means walking the shadows with a demon.
