It was God's desire, from the very foundation of the earth, when He declared that it was not good for a man to live alone and that man should enjoy the ecstasy of marriage. The fullness of joy was later destroyed when the enemy planted a seed of disobedience in the woman by going against the commands of the Almighty God. God has never let go of His intents and so through the Apostle Paul, commended the older women to admonish the young women to uphold God's original intent of marriage.
