How do two fabulous, thirtysomething gay men end up adopting a baby? Three magic words: Honey, I'm pregnant!

PopDaddy is the true story of boy meets boy meets baby. Ken and Jeffrey's lives take a sudden and unexpected turn when their best friend announces she's pregnant. Ken wants a baby too. What follows is a hilarious and heartwarming story of two gay men in their thirties who decide to pursue an international adoption from Guatemala. The story is told from Jeffrey's perspective and begins with the big announcement and ends with their son's first birthday party. In between the boys have to work hard to overcome bad luck, bad karma and Jeffrey's fat childhood to get to their storybook ending.

"Does it sound shallow if I say we should choose the cutest one?"

Ken and I were hunkered over his computer screen, squinting at grainy pictures of three baby boys who had recently arrived at Casa Antigua, the agency in Guatemala we were using for our adoption. We had been waiting for this email for weeks, waiting for a baby boy to find his way to us on the back of misfortune. We were counting on Guatemala's devout Catholic population and disregard for birth control to make our wait a short one.
