Cowboy Romance: Where My Heart Is (Western Romance, New Adult Romance Short Stories, Cowboy Romance) Danny Brewer

Danny Rhodes is a young cowboy who works as a ranch hand on the same farm where his recently-deceased father used to work when he first met Danny's mother, Sara Rhodes. Danny is a skilled rifleman and loves horseback riding, just like his father was.

The small town of Mildred, where Danny lives with his widowed mother, has an annual Town Fair on the first day of summer, each year. And, every year, Danny enters the shooting contest. This year, he plans to win it with his lucky rifle that his father gave him before he passed away.

Kate Lyons is a pretty young cowgirl who can ride a horse and shoot a gun. She's from a small town about 5 miles from Mildred and Danny's never met a girl like her, before. This year, since she's finally 18, her father lets her enter the shooting contest. When Danny lays eyes on her, its love at first sight, and he finally understands what his father had been telling him about meeting "the one."

As Danny and Kate's romance blossoms, Danny's mother falls ill. Danny can't fathom losing his mother so soon after having lost his father. Danny thought that his mother was all he had left, but Kate opens her heart to him and shows him that he's not alone...
