Simply Wild: Untamed Wonders Large and Small Sherry Boas

From toothy alligators to zebra longwing butterflies, photojournalist and naturalist Sherry Boas encounters an ongoing parade of diverse and often overlooked wildlife at her lakeside bamboo farm in Central Florida. Sharing her passion for all things wild in 44 photo-illustrated stories filled with entertaining anecdotes and fascinating facts, Sherry seeks the inherent beauty and purpose in all creatures regardless of their size, reputation, appearance or habits. Join her as she follows a pair of sandhill cranes from courtship through parenting. Discover which unexpected food source river otters relish. Learn about crazy red birds, thieving squirrels, armor-covered armadillos and moths that resemble hummingbirds. Whether the untamed wonders are large or small, Sherry approaches her subjects with a lightheartedness and respectful admiration that readers of her SIMPLY LIVING column have come to expect.
