Beautiful young French literature teacher Angelique's life is unexpectedly turned upside down when she meets ex-con bad boy Arran. Falling for each other may have been easy for her, but it certainly was not part of his plan. In fact, he was never sure he even believed in such a thing as being in love before. All his thinking has been done with his cold hard head, but all of a sudden, life has intervened and things have gotten very complicated, very quickly!

On the surface, it should all be so easy, but in actual fact, everybody in the world seems to be against them. And then something so awful happens that it throws their whole lives into chaos. Can Angelique help get him out of the terrible mess that he has found himself so deeply in and will they have any kind of future together?
