Adult Children of Elvis Fanatics: The Best of Robyn's Hood...so far Robyn McCloskey

Having grown up with a mom who still mourns the death of Elvis Presley, Robyn McCloskey, weekly newspaper columnist of "Robyn's Hood" learned early on that you can't take life too seriously. With a keen sense of irony, Robyn takes her favorite columns and publishes them in anthology form, unedited, untouched and unapproved. Read all about what life is like when you're the daughter of an Elvis Fanatic, the wife of a pastor (don't tell Robyn that God doesn't have a sense of humor), and how being a mom can drive you to the brink of insanity. You'll also read a tale or two of what it's like in the glamorous world of working as an extra in movies and rubbing elbows (and not much else) with the rich and famous, because sadly, so far "background work" pays better than writing. Seriously...life is funny.
