Lots of books offer "signs" that your husband is cheating. Only one tells you how to stop him- and what you should do next.

For more than a decade, Attorney S.L. Carter has shared her professional and personal experience with clients struggling with issues of infidelity in their relationship. Over the years, she has learned to identify specific patterns of behavior in unfaithful men, to gather proof for a confrontation, and even how to force the end of an affair without revealing what you know.

In the event that relationships can't be healed, she explains important steps that you should take to safeguard your financial future and how to move on with your life with the cheater is gone.

The book includes:

Why men have affairs

How to gather and organize evidence to prove your suspicions

67 specific signs that your partner is cheating

Strategies to investigate and to prove an affair

Tactics to counteract or to end the affair without revealing what you know

Questions to consider before staging a confrontation

An action plan for a confrontation- and common traps to avoid!

Advice for getting on with the rest of your life

"Is He Cheating On Me" is the comprehensive guide to tell you if your husband, boyfriend or fiance is cheating, to help you catch the cheater, to end the affair, and to face whatever comes next with confidence!
