Second Wind (Perspective) (Volume 2) Amanda Giasson, Julie B. Campbell

Megan and Irys have found themselves tangled in a web more intricate than either could have imagined. Sometimes you must stand against your enemies and sometimes you must befriend them if you want to survive.

Irys:

The Masquerade was over but only now was I wearing the mask.

Everything appeared the same, but to me it looked twisted and distorted. Megan was gone. I'd failed both my friend and my Goddess. It was time for action. I would be a part of it.

Megan:

I was trapped and afraid, but I wasn't alone. Warriors were all around me. Who could I trust? All I could hope was that Irys was safe and that Thayn would come for me.

Until then, I would do what I had to do.
