The book, "Drop & Give Him Sixty", is such an inspiring testimony that it immediately gives the reader an "unction" for prayer. It is an excellent example of the Body of Christ coming together to exhort, edify, and to heal. Every joint supplies!

Every need is met when we, the believers pray (II Chronicle 7:14) That's our confidence! We know that He hears us and we know we have the petitions of the things we desired (I John 5:14- 15). Things happen when we pray! It's the fervent and effectual prayer of the righteous that gets results (James 5:16).

The "Pillow Lady", as Minister Terri Jones, is known has magnificently demonstrated the scribe and intercessor that she is. The Ascension gifts given to her are wonderfully manifest. I am thankful to be a co-laborer with her and other elect of God for expansion of the ministry. We are grateful for the gift she is to the Body of Christ.

What an excellent platform to introduce and perpetuate the teachings and commands by using social media as a Kingdom tool to advance the Kingdom of God which is a kingdom of light and life. God can do nothing in the earth except through you and I. He reveals Himself to us and we are obedient. We are His ambassadors and ministers of reconciliation. When we pray and intercede, He hears and answers. He is alert, active and watches over the Word and performs. He completes and finishes the words spoken by His servants. We are victors and no longer victims!

"Drop & Give Him Sixty" will promote an enthusiasm and a zealotry for the work of the ministry as well as a hunger to become in a closer fellowship with the God of your salvation. A desire to know Him! Your faith will be whole and no longer fragmented as you read every prayer, scripture, and testimony of answered prayers.

I encourage you to take sixty seconds to becoming strengthened, settled, steadfast, and mature in your spiritual journey.

Shalom Beloved of God! Elder Deborah Ross Kingdom Life Ministries, Intl.
