Your hurting matters to God. He cares about everything you go through and wants to hold you through it all. He sees your heart aches and cherishes every prayer.

And God will answer your prayers. He has a plan in your suffering, and will use this season to strengthen you, and your relationship with Him. While there may be nothing good about the pain you may be in, He has the power to make your life good again. His love for you will compel Him to bless you and heal you.

In these pages you'll find the comfort you need. You'll learn why God allows bad things to happen and how he intends them for good. You will understand His plan so that you can find peace again.
