Siochain means 'peace' in Gaelic, which is precisely what Liz was looking for when she divorced her ex-husband and moved to a small town in the mountains. Her life is calm, if somewhat solitary until she meets Shane Connolly the local Sherriff. He immediately disrupts her peace of mind, and slowly disrupts everything else. Which might be exactly what she needs. Shane is a small town Sherriff, which is what he wants out of life. Until he bumps into Liz. The instant chemistry between them finds him thinking of her more than he should. And with the danger lurking in his once peaceful town, now is not the time for him to be distracted. Can these two find a way to make it work? Or will past fears and present danger keep them apart?
