The Day the Music Died Blair Evans

What happens to the mind of a musician when Music dies?

In one day, I lost the only thing I ever truly loved - music. With nothing in my life and no centering influence, I followed a path some would call delusional and make believe. But it's hard not to succumb when you suffer a grief like mine. All I want is to know the difference between talent, inspiration and acts of chance. I will solve this riddle of musical decide.

- Cameron Forsyth

"This is a highly unusual book in both format and delivery. The humor is wonderfully dry and thick ... A strong start for Blair Evans as a promising new author."

- SelfPublishingReview

"THE DAY THE MUSIC DIED offers sex, subculture, some perceptive observations and fervently charged moments in one man's journey to rediscover the music in his life."

- IndieReader

Genre: Dark Fiction / Literary Fiction.
