Steven Wolfe has had it with that damned cat! The creature keeps getting into his house and he can't figure out how. To make matters worse, he's a werewolf so he doesn't particularly care for four-legged creatures of the feline variety, but the thing is so persistent! How can even a wolf keep his distance when she curls up so trustingly in his lap every night as if she belonged there.

Felina Eldridge simply can't resist the handsome man next door. She knows exactly what he is, and she knows there can never be anything between them. After all, she's a familiar. She's destined to mate with a witch and to aid him in all he does. But, damn! What would it be like to bed the handsome Steven Wolfe? Curiosity being ninety percent of a cat's make-up, Felina sets out to find out exactly what kind of lover a werewolf would make.

Throw in a coven determined to see to the happiness of all the supernatural creatures in Mount Bell, and things just snowball from there. And remember, in Mount Bell, things aren't always what they seem.

"Not only is Opposites Attract hot but it's very funny as well. Coupled together, Marteeka Karland has penned a fantastic short tale about two individuals that are definitely meant to be together. When these two got together, their chemistry combusted and that is something you don't want to miss!"

"Opposites Attract is just plain hot. Steven and Felina definitely have chemistry, and their love scenes are smoking hot! On top of that, Karland injects the story with ironic humor throughout the pages, which always increases my estimation of a book."
