One Degree Paul Wittwer, Bryan Norman

The Remington shotgun stared Paul Wittwer in the face. It was the last gift of his dead father who committed suicide years earlier. Beaten down by a life of physical and emotional challenges, Paul decided enough was enough, and he was ready to pull the trigger. But the story doesn't end there. In this true tale that is stranger than fiction, you will see the power of hope and help that is desperate to find us all. A story where one man battles unimaginable hardships and emerges to find friendship, health, and prosperity by finding grace and love one person at a time. One Degree is a story of second chances and beating the odds, of overcoming the past and embracing a future full of power and purpose
