Her son is grown and gone, and after long years spent in the role of loyal wife to her charming but unfaithful husband, she's ready to live the life she's always dreamed of. Her resolve is firm: she'll never make the mistake of giving her heart to another man. The first step in Ruby's quest for a carefree lifestyle was to create the Newport Ladies Book Club, an unlikely gathering of women who have been her haven. Now she's ready to take her new found independence a step further, along with her friends from the local senior center, Ruby is jetting off on a much-needed Greece adventure. What she isn't prepared for is Gabriel, the group's tour guide, a native Greek and a true gentleman. His unquestionable charm is hard to resist. But resist she must, because no matter their growing attraction, Ruby is not about to fall for charming again!
