Everyone has those middle-of-the night dreams that take us into an unseen world as close as our pillow and which can stay with us twenty-four-hours-per day. This coming of age story is structured around the life of a sheltered sixteen-year-old girl with an overbearing mother, who has recurrent dreams that seem to connect the natural and supernatural worlds. Do her dreams have any special significance? Follow this girl's life as she navigates her way through the ethereal world of dreams, seeking answers and insights. The story never loses sight of this teenage girl's goal of solving the meaning of her dreams.
