The Money Pit Arthur Coleman

In 1795 a young man found signs of something buried on a deserted island. He and some friends dug until water began to enter the pit and gave up their search. Later treasure seekers failed to get past the water. Modern hunters continue to excavate the site in spite of numerous searchers dying due to the flooding, collapsing shafts, and poisonous gas. Still, hope springs eternal for a new search when the mystery of the money pit may finally be solved. One answer may be the Jewish hiding of the Ark of the Covenant, Ten Commandment Tablets, The Crucifixion Cross, etc., under the Jerusalem temple mount when the temples were destroyed were later found by the Knight Templars, who moved them to England. The conquest of Mexico and the salvage of the richest Spanish shipwreck by the English in the 1700's. The captain of the salvage operation went after the bounty with a small fleet of vessels, some of which carried the temple mount relics! Conspiracy, Intrigue, Treachery - Templars go to Nova Scotia and hide the loot. Now you may know!
