...A young man may ask in a naïve longing in a first meeting. Such blind love, where he'll do anything for his lover could lead to unrealistic expectations. Eventual disappointment and pain, both physical and mental, is assured. How does he handle such pain? Does the bitterness eat him up, or does this young man grow and find his true love in life. This collection of poems and short stories explore this journey that most of us go through. Though the characters are different, they do hold a similarity in their desire for true love.
