No-Nonsense Craps: The Consummate Guide to Winning at the Crap Table Richard Orlyn

Discover for yourself why dice control, table charting, point counting and other useless carnival barking schemes should be relegated to the circular file. Give yourself a reasonable chance of winning at the crap table while you gain the admiration of the table crew and your fellow players. Richard Orlyn, the fresh new voice in the game of craps, exposes the myths and debunks the superstitions propounded by the rank-and-file authors in this genre. No nonsense, no fictional anecdotes, just the simple but profound lessons of two-dice probability theory presented for the novice and seasoned player alike. This quick read includes distinctive betting and money management skills along with the author's trademarked TABLE TIME PLUS strategy for prevailing at the table. Unique in its approach; uncompromising in its integrity; complete with illustrative material and glossary.
