This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1911 edition. Excerpt: ... Mr. Glaser has been three times married. He married first, in 1863, Catherine Walker, by whom he had six children, of whom three are living, namely: Henry J., of Chicago, Illinois; Lucy, of Escanaba; and John, of Escanaba. Mr. Glaser married second, December, 1887, Catherine Ramspech, who died in 1896, leaving one daughter, Ida Glaser. He subsequently married Jennie A. Briggs. Mr. Glaser is an active member of the C. F. Smith Post, No. 175, G. A. R., of Escanaba, in which he has filled all of the offices, and of which he has been commander for many years. He is likewise a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; of the Sons of Hermann; and of the German Aid Society. John Lehman.--As sheriff of Marquette county, John Lehman is widely and favorably known throughout this section of the Upper Peninsula as a man eminently worthy of the respect and confidence so generously accorded him by his fellow-men. Active and energetic, performing the duties devolving upon him with ability and fidelity, he is rendering excellent service in his official capacity, and is popular with all classes of the people. He was born April 13, 1862, in Sweden, which has given to this country so many of its most able and faithful citizens. His father, Carl Lehman, emigrated with his family to Michigan in 1873. He located in Marquette county, and was here a resident until his death, in 1887, while yet in manhood's prime. His widow is now living at Ishpeming, Michigan. To them seven children were born, four of whom survive. John being the second child in succession of birth. John Lehman obtained the rudiments of his education in his native land, completing his studies in the public schools of Ishpeming. During his boyhood days he began his active career at the...
