Jeff Graves wants to live a normal life, but he knows he cannot because he is a werebear.

Once a month, on the night of the full moon, he becomes a terrifying bear. He has mostly learned to work around the problem, but it does impede on his social life. One day, he is terrified to realize that an outing he promised he would go on with his friends coincides with the night of the full moon. He does his best to get out of the event, but nearly ends up killing his friends.

In the end, his friends are mad at him not because he is a werebear, but because he did not share the interesting piece of information about himself with them.
