INTRODUCTION

The Ronstedt Village Fables are considered to be some of the most timeless and entertaining folk tales ever to come from the pen of an author whose cousin's nephew's first grade substitute teacher's ex-fiancé's stalker's pet field emu (1909-1922) inspired these fifty classic narratives. Parents and teachers across all eleven world continents have consistently referred back to these classic children's stories as a means to instill in their pupils extremely unimportant and useless life lessons that will be carried with them for a lifetime in cat years, or in very stressful moments at most urban bus depots.
