Greenbook Guide to Department 56 Villages

Greenbook Guide to Department 56 Villages

This is an authoritative book on Department 56 Villages. The pictures accurately reflect each piece including accessories. Listed both by name of piece and by number of piece. Pictures are in color for easy identification. Valuable book especially when buying the retired pieces. Exceptional for those who need to have items insured above and beyond what normal homeowners regular policy covers (and extra coverage, but this is recommended). If you have extensive numbers of pieces and can't remember if you have a certain one a place for logging in info is provided. E.G., When bought, how much paid, current market value, and increase or decrease in value over the life of the piece. Very helpful for anyone getting started or those with large collections.
