Triple Cross: Winner Takes All King Diamond

Antwan “Greedy” Pryor, TraShawnia “Precious” Rogers, and Victor “Domino” Miller grew up together in a ghetto foster home on Jacksonville’s wild and dangerous Northside. Their foster mother Reba could care less about their welfare or their upbringing, as long as the state’s DCF office kept sending those monthly checks and food stamps.

Reba’s daily addiction to playing lottery scratch-off tickets suddenly rewards her with a million dollars, immediately abandoning them without a second’s hesitation. She didn’t even bother to call, write, or anything, leaving them with unpaid bills, no support, and no clue as to how they were going to survive.

Together, and with the ‘by any means necessary’ mentality, the trio set out on a fearless mission of criminal mischief. As each day passed their souls and hearts grew colder and colder, to the point that even the devil would be crazy to trust either of them. By sheer accident they bumped into their cruel foster mother Reba one day, kidnapping her and taking everything that she possessed; even her life. But true to the saying that ‘money is the root of all evil’, their newly acquired wealth served as a fraternal curse, each of them plotting and scheming to have the riches all to theirself.

In a constantly twisting, suspense filled tale of lust, money, murder, and so much mayhem, this novel will leave you wondering can you even trust your own circle anymore. The double cross is something that you’ve probably experienced at least once in your life, but the TRIPLE CROSS is something that you definitely don’t ever want to experience outside of this novel.
